PERSONAL.

Dr. and Mrs. Burdette O'Connor, of New York, are guests of Mrs. G. A. Jessup.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith, of W. Harbut and F. W. Cain were registered at the St. Denis, in New York, last week.

Thomas White, New York agent for the Montgomery wholesale produce house of this city, spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in West Scranton.

Attorney P. J. McAndrew, James Tegan and Dominick Gibbons returned Saturday night from Philadelphia, where they saw the peace jubilee exercises.

Edward Farrell, of New York, is able to be around again after a very successful operation for appendicitis by Dr. R.
H. Gibbons at the Moses Taylor hospital.

J. P. Metzger has resigned his position with the lithographing departments of the Lyceum theater and Academy of Music. After a few days' visit at his home in New York he will go to Ottawa, Canada, to accept a similar position at the new Russell theater of that city.

Miss Ellen K. Kraemer, superintendent of the Lackawanna hospital, and Miss Caroline Chapman, assistant superintendent, went to New York Saturday morning and will return Wednesday. Mrs.
John T. Brown is in charge of the hospital during their absence.

Dr. C. L. Hill returned home last week from an extended hunting trip in New Brunswick and Maine, where he shot a large moose and a fine deer. He brought his heads home with him as specimens.
He says he had a fine outing. Game was very plentiful.

The New York Sun of yesterday says:
"The first fixed for the wedding of Miss Helen Dawson Galtin and George Kilmer Davis, of Wilkes-Barre, is December 14, which falls on a Wednesday. The Rev. John Wesley Brown, rector of St.
Thomas, will perform the ceremony at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and will be assisted by the Rev. Mr. Huske. The bride, a remarkably handsome young woman of the blonde type, will be attired in white broad satin, with long court train of white velvet. She will wear the lace veil worn by her mother, Mrs. James Galtin, at her wedding. Miss Louise M. Stevens, the bride's most intimate friend, and a daughter of Mrs. John Reinman, will be the maid of honor. There will be ten bridesmaids, including Miss Louise Galtin, Miss Julia Donohue, Miss Mary Hamilton, Miss Victoria White, Miss Lillian Gray, Miss Eleanor Patterson, Miss Adele Ireland, Miss Elsie Little, and Miss Arthur Davis.

Miss Jessica Davis, sisters of the bridegroom, Thomas Darling, of Wilkes-Barre, will be best men.

REGIMENTAL ORDER.

Information for Members of the Eleventh Regiment.

Colonel Waters issued the following order on Saturday:

Headquarters Eleventh Regiment Infantry, Third Brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania.
Scranton, Pa., Oct. 23, 1898.

Special Order No. 2.

Company commanders will have their companies formed, on regular drill days, promptly at 8 o'clock and drill for one hour. Until otherwise ordered companies will be drilled for the first fifteen minutes in "setting up exercises." From 8:20 to 8:30, in "School of the Company," and from 8:30 to 9, in "School of Arms," giving special attention to the aiming and firing drill. Company commanders are hereby directed to have the firing pins removed and carefully preserved until needed for cartridge firing.

By order of L. A. Waters, Colonel.
D. B. Atherton, Adjutant.

MR. WRIGHT ANSWERED.

Congressman Connell Explains That the Pension Claims Accredited to Him by the Truth Cannot Be Other Than Genuine.

Last week the Truth printed a list of the pensions that had been secured by Congressman Connell so far in his first term, accompanying it with a very complimentary comment on Mr.
Connell's success in this regard. Two days after the appearance of the Truth article the Times indicated ex-Alderman O. B. Wright to say that a great many of the pensions which Congressman Connell was accredited with having secured were secured by him, the ex-alderman.

Congressman Connell was not disposed to dignify the article with a public reply and would not if it were merely a political campaign matter, but feeling a particular pride in his labors in this direction he deemed it only just to himself to authorize the following statement:

"The list of pension claims granted as published in the Truth was copied from a book in which I had entered them as notice of their granting was received. A notice like the following which was forwarded me from Washington yesterday, was received in every instance.

Act of June 27, 1890.
Certificate Division, Department of the Interior, Bureau of Pensions.
Washington, D. C., Oct. 22, 1898.

Sir: I have the honor to inform you that the claim of Henry Siglin, of 192 Pittston avenue, Scranton, Pa., for insurance pension has been allowed at $8 per month, from Sept. 7, 1898, and that certificate No. 85,554 will this day be forwarded to the pension agent at Pittston for transmittal to the pensioner, with voucher for payment.

As you have called up this case by letter of inquiry I deem it but courteous to inform you of this action. Very respectfully,
H. Clay Evans,
Commissioner.

To Hon. William Connell, House of Representatives.

It is quite possible that ex-Alderman Wright, like the other pension claim agents acted as scrivener for the applicant at so much per "servit." At that his connection with the securing of the pension ceased.

This thing of paying an expensive intermediary to assist in getting a pension application on file is unnecessary.
Mr. Connell states: If the applicant will write to him direct he will see to the filing and everything else in connection with the application and when the pension is secured there will be no portion of it retained for "fees."

TWO BUGGIES COLLIDE.

E. F. Morris, of North Park, Green Ridge, was painfully but not seriously injured yesterday afternoon in a collision on North Main avenue, West Side, of the carriage he was driving in with one driven by two half-drunk young men and drawn by a bob-tailed bay horse.

Morris' carriage was upset in the coming together and he was bruised and scratched by falling on the pave.
The other carriage was somewhat damaged, not enough, however, to detain its occupants from making off as fast as they could. The police had an eye out for them, without any results.

Richards, Wirth & Lewis, exclusive clothing, 328 Lackawanna avenue, as usual, will be open late on Saturday evening. They desire to apologize to those who were unable to be waited upon last Saturday night, and state they have made ample preparation to care for all traders who may favor them with their patronage in the future, having secured the services of several more salesmen. The past week has been a busy one, and those who call at their store will find a much larger assortment of fall and winter garments for men and boys.

ABANDONMENT OF CANAL AND GRAVITY

THE D. & H. WILL LEAN MORE HEAVILY ON THE ERIE.

If the Ideas Advanced by Thomas Dickson When He Was President of the Company Were Adopted As Its Policy the Present Condition of Affairs Would Not Exist.
Arrangements Between the Erie and Wyoming Valley Company and the New Road.

By its decision to abandon its canal the Delaware and Hudson Canal company becomes more closely allied than ever before with the Erie company.

After the first of the year the Delaware and Hudson Canal company will be made to get any of its coal, general freight or passengers out of the valley without passing over the Erie tracks. For years the Delaware and Hudson has used the Erie road from Carbondale to Ninevah, as the connecting link between its New York and Pennsylvania divisions.

Officials of the company from time to time advocated the building of a road paralleling the Erie between the points named, but the directors of the company could not see the wisdom of it and nothing was done further than to make surveys of the route.

The recent decision with reference to the canal and gravity road will cause the Delaware and Hudson to lean more heavily on the Erie. After the first of the year its coal will be transferred to the Erie and Wyoming Valley road at various points along the valley and taken to Hawley where it will pass on to the Erie tracks. A truckage arrangement between the Erie and Wyoming Valley and the Erie makes it possible for the Delaware and Hudson to make use of the road of the first named company.

ANOTHER ROUTE.

If desired coal can also be shipped over the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern and New York, Susquehanna and Western railroads, running from Wilkes-Barre to New York. They are now controlled by the Erie. The Delaware and Hudson company probably in anticipation of recent changes, some months ago connected its road with the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern near Wilkes-Barre. It is probable that the coal from the mines of the company in the vicinity of Plymouth was destined for New York will be shipped over the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern.

While changed conditions of the coal trade and to some extent the shifting of the territory in which the Delaware and Hudson Canal company sells its coal, has urged the abandonment of the canal and gravity road necessary, the condition of affairs here and the golden opportunity of the Delaware and Hudson passed. The lands it might easily have acquired in the early days of the development of the Lackawanna valley passed into the hands of individuals and they were offered to breakers and began to mine coal. That made the Scranton branch of the New York, Ontario and Western necessary and possible.

ONE OF THE RESULTS.

This circumscribing of the limits of the coal business of the Delaware and Hudson made it far less important factor in the anthracite coal trade than it otherwise would have been and left it with such a small amount of coal to ship that it is no longer profitable to conduct the gravity road and canal.

This end was hastened to some extent by the New York, Ontario and Western, which secured for its road the coal from the openings of about all of the individual operators between Forest City and Scranton.

The coal properties of the Delaware and Hudson are naturally not as valuable as they were a decade ago and they will continue to depreciate in value. There are no reliable figures as to the probable life of their mines, but they are among the oldest in the valley and immense quantities of coal have been removed from them. It may be that the company is preparing for the day when it will have a railroad on its hands, but no coal worth speaking of to ship over it.

The Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad in making the contract with the directors of the proposed new road to New York was probably preparing for a similar contingency. By the arrangement entered into the Erie and Wyoming Valley company will carry to Winners the coal from the collateral mines along the valley that ship over the new road. At

SAID THE ORDER WAS FORGED.

Allegation Made at Saturday's Lack- awanna Township Hearing.

Commissioner Quinnan conducted another hearing Saturday in the matter of Lackawanna township indebtedness.
Claims were presented by Attorney John J. Murphy for Patrick Coyne, an ex-supervisor, and by Attorney T. P.
Duffy, representing other parties.
Among the orders presented by Mr.
Murphy for Mr. Coyne was one for $30, signed by Michael Gibbons as supervisor, and C. P. O'Malley, of Willard, Warren & Knapp, alleged that it was a forged order. Mr. Coyne received it from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company as a part of some tax he received when he was supervisor.

There was to be an investigation of the order by E. B. Laidlaw, but Attorney J. H. Torrey, representing Mr.
Davidson, was not able to be present.
Mr. Quinnan expects to get started soon to call in the persons in whose names orders are issued to prove they performed the service which each claim represents.

No news has been heard of the missing records. The information most sought now is not the whereabouts of the books but the identity of the person or persons who burned them, it being the generally accepted theory that they went up in smoke.

BIG REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Arrangements for the Meeting at the Lyceum Tomorrow Night.

Speakers Who Will Accom- pany Col. W. A. Stone.

Tomorrow night the citizens of Scranton will have the opportunity of seeing and hearing the next governor of Pennsylvania, Colonel W. A. Stone, who with a number of other prominent Republicans will address a mass meeting at the Lyceum at 8 o'clock.

Colonel Stone will participate in the Republican rally at Wilkes-Barre tonight, and in the morning proceed to Honesdale where a meeting will be held in the early part of the afternoon.

Returning to Scranton a stop will be made at Carbondale. Upon arriving in this city the party will be met by a committee of prominent Republicans and escorted to the Lyceum, where a brief reception will be held preceding the meeting. Mayor's band will accompany the committee which will escort Colonel Stone and his party to the Lyceum and will discourse music at intervals during the meeting.

Thomas H. Dale will preside at the meeting. The executive committee of the Republican county committee will act as vice presidents and the county committees will occupy seats on the stage.

The speakers in addition to Colonel Stone will be the learned and eloquent Rev. Edward Reed, D. D., president of Dickinson college; Major Alex Mc-Dowell, chief clerk of the house of representatives and one of Pennsylvania's ablest talkers; Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart, and District Attorney W. L. Schaeffer, of Delaware county.

POLITICAL JOTTINGS.

Extensive arrangements have been made for a fitting reception of Colonel Stone at Wilkes-Barre today. He will be escorted by a large party to the train and a reception committee composed of: Hon. Charles A. Miner, chairman; T. H. Albertson, Hon. John Leiden-berger, Hon. George W. Harris, Dr. F. C. Johnson, Jr., Mr. T. H. Morgan, W. L. Conyngham, Hon. George W. Shook, George J. L.
Trotter, Hon. John C. Swallow, Hon. J.
Dore Strong, W. T. Reed, Hon. C. W.
Kilne, T. D. James, Charles Wilde, Alvin Markie, James B. Davis, W. E. Jones, C. W. Haines, James E. Rodrick, L. C.
Darr.

Hon. John Wamaker, accompanied by Senator C. C. Kaestner, will arrive in this city this morning and deliver a number of political addresses here and elsewhere. A meeting will probably be held at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western car shops at noon; the next at Carbondale at 2 o'clock; another at the Olyphant opera house at 4:15 o'clock, and the final at the armory at 8 o'clock. Attorney James J. H. Hamilton has the arrangements for the Wamaker speeches in charge.

The Democratic county committee held a meeting at its headquarters in the Guernsey hall Saturday night. It was given out after the meeting that reports from all over the county showed the Republicans to be going to the bowwows and the Democrats harmony to be so thick and it would resist the piercing precipities of a 4-inch gun.

Tuesday night Dr. Shus C. Swallow and party will hold forth at the armory.
Volney B. Cushing, of Maine, and David Wallerstein, of Philadelphia, are among the speakers. The company will arrive on Wednesday at noon Dr. Swallow will address the employees of the Dickenson works.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

C. P. O'Malley, of Willard, Warren & Knapp, petitioned court Saturday for a writum to compel Joseph A. Dolpau, secretary of the borough council of Olypphant, to permit him to inspect the numerous books. Mr. O'Malley owns a property in the First ward of Olyphant, and wished to find out in what shape the records are with reference to a proposed sewer.
Mr. Dolpau refused him access to the books.

Mrs. Annie Deary, by Attorney O'Brien & Kelly, petitioned court Saturday to be allowed to exercise the rights of a father toward her two children, Walter, 15, and Eddie, 15 years old. She alleges that her husband on May 8, 1881, cast herself and her children out of the house and has not contributed to their support since.
But he now has given orders to the employer of his son not to pay the wages to Mrs. Deary. Court ordered that on Monday, Nov. 7, five days' notice be given to Deary.

Patrick Barrett, of the North End, represented by Attorney Yousburg & Dawson, filed a petition for a divorce from his wife, Katie Barrett, to whom he was married a year ago. He alleges that he was only 15 years old at the time and was induced by fraudulent representations to marry her. She is six years his senior.
Argument on the quo warranto proceeding of Attorney John J. Murphy against the Scranton poor board has gone over until a week from today. The case was set for Friday and papers of business sent it over to the next day, and when it was called up then there was no other one on the bench but Judge Archibald, who said it was not worth waiting pass upon his own actions. Judge Gunster came on the bench later. Judge Edwards was absent, and he did not want to hear the argument alone. Consequently the case was put over till Nov. 7.

mix. They give the needed protection and comfort and cost but 25c. pair, worth double.

Men's Underwear

Warm and Heavy

Hang up underwear at special low prices, not bought promi-nently but selected with the greatest care because your purchase demands economy and durability in every garment we sell. Faded, faded, faded, Faded Cotton, Natural Wool, Cotton's Hair, Wright's Health Underwear, and all good sorts as cheap as you wish to go.
Special Fancy Derby Ribbed Underwear at 50c. a garment.

There is downright satisfaction in our underwear.
We haven't said a word about shirts. Know they are right if Hard & Payne sells them.
